

Gala Hosted in Honour of Olympic Heroes

15th August 2012, LONDON

Ethiopian Olympic medallists and other athletes were given a hero's welcome at a gala hosted in their honour at Porchester Hall in London's Bayswater.

Accompanied by the award-winning musical troupe, Dankira, upon arrival, they were presented by HE Ambassador Berhanu Kebede with bouquets of flower and led to their seats waving to standing dignitaries and invited guests in the hall which was packed to capacity.

Welcoming the athletes and members of the National Olympic Committee, HE Berhanu Kebede, Ethiopian Ambassador to the UK and the Scandinavian countries, said "There are dates to celebrate, and to celebrate in the most joyful way. Dates that hold the rhythm of life which beats like a heart. Hearts which serve as a power-house to fire up the limbs of Ethiopian athletes, urging them on to go to the distance, to push themselves to the limits, and to be crowned with well-earned medals as golden, glamorous and historical as the rainbow nation of Ethiopia."

Citing the host of events organized by the Ethiopian Embassy in London to showcase Ethiopia as a mosaic of nations and nationalities and the richness of its culture, HE the Ambassador expressed amazement at the fabulous support given by huge crowds at all the venues to Team GB and to all other athletes, including Team Ethiopia which won 7 medals, placing it 5th in the athletics medal table and 25th overall.

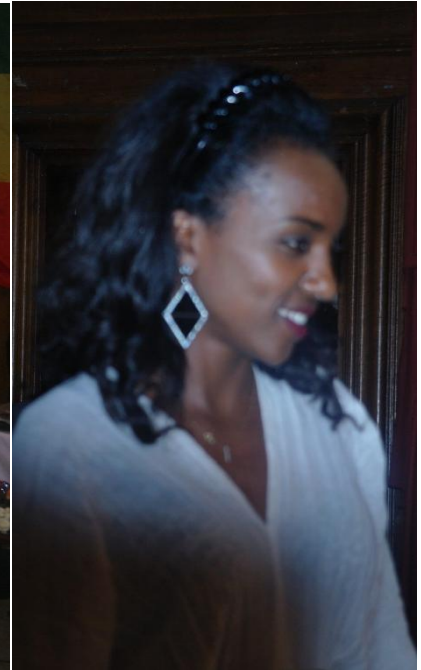

The stamina and invincibility of our Olympic heroes, their commitment, persistence and resilience is a testimony to the perseverance of Ethiopians which, he said, "lies at the heart of the Ethiopian Renaissance."
